CONSULTING

Gingles vs. Edmisten, 590 F. SUPP. 345 (E.D.N.C.) 1984. Employed by plaintiff intervenors, courtroom and affidavit testimony that the use of multimember districts for the N.C. General Assembly impedes the election of blacks and Republicans. Affirmed by the United States Supreme Court Thornburg vs. Gingles, 478 U.S. 30 (1986).

Alexander vs. Martin, Civil Action No. 86-1048-CIV-5 (E.D.N.C.) 1987. Employed by plaintiffs. Affidavit testimony that the use of multimember districts and statewide elections for Superior Court Judges in North Carolina impedes the elections of black candidates.

Republican Party of North Carolina vs. Hunt, Civil Action No. 88-263-CIV-5 (E.D.N.C.) 1988-1996. Employed by plaintiffs. Affidavit and deposition testimony that the procedure of statewide elections of Superior Court judges dilutes the votes of Republicans consistently degrading the votes of Republican voters and also degrades their influence on the political process as a whole in violation of constitutional rights.

Person vs. Moore County, Civil Action No. C-89-135-R (M.D.N.C.) 1990. Employed by defendants. Affidavit and deposition testimony supported the contention that the local governing bodies in this county were in compliance with the Voting Rights Act.

Ward vs. Columbus County, Civil Action No. 90-20-CIV-7-BR (E.D.N.C.) 1990. Retained by defendants. Affidavit, courtroom, and deposition testimony that black and American Indian voters were not cohesive in their voting patterns in this county.

Lake vs. State Board of Elections of North Carolina, Civil Action No. 2:91CV00254 (M.D.N.C.) 1991. Employed by the plaintiffs. Affidavit testimony on aspects of holding a special election in two counties to remedy irregularities in election for Associate Justice of N.C. Supreme Court in 1990.

Stafford vs. Burnick, Civil Action No. 2:91CV00542 (M.D.N.C.) 1991. Employed by the plaintiffs. Affidavit testimony about whether the options proposed in a referendum to be held in Guilford County North Carolina concerning consolidation of the school boards there would violate the Voting Rights Act.

Consultant for a coalition of groups objecting to preclearance of General Assembly and Congressional redistricting for North Carolina in 1991. Affidavit testimony to the United States Justice Department that the proposed districts reduced the ability of minority voters to elect candidates of their choice.

Consultant for a coalition of groups objecting to preclearance of General Assembly and Congressional redistricting for Georgia in 1991. Affidavit testimony to the United States Justice Department that the proposed districts would reduce the ability of minority voters to elect candidates of their choice. This work was related to Jones vs. Miller, Civil Action No. 1-92-CV-330-JOF (N.D.GA) in which I would have been an expert witness for plaintiffs if that case had gone to trial.

Burton vs. Sheheen, Civil Action No. 3-91-2983-1 (The South Carolina Senate Defendant-Intervenors); South Carolina Reapportionment Advisory Committee vs. Campbell, Civil Action No. 3-91-3310-1; and Blanton vs. Sheheen, Civil Action No. 2-91-3635-1 (D.C.S.C. Columbia Division). Employed by plaintiffs in 1991-2. Affidavit and courtroom testimony that election for Congress and state legislature in South Carolina are racially polarized, that timely known and agreed to districts are important to minority candidates election, that the 1982 districts in the state are malapportioned, and comparison of proposed plans for redistricting.

Re MacKinnon and Government of Prince Edward Island (1993). Before the Supreme Court of Prince Edward Island, Canada. In the Matter of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and in the matter of sections 147-151 of the Elections Act, R.S.P.E.I. 1988 Chapter E-1. 101 D.L.R.(4th) 362. Written and courtroom testimony for petitioner (City of Charlottetown) that it is practical and desirable to draw districts for the Legislative Assembly of the Province of P.E.I. that have a low population deviation. Included construction of districts with a total deviation of 4.9%, and presentation of those districts to the court.

Hines vs. Callis, Civil Action No. 89-62-CIV-2-BO (E.D.N.C.) 1992. Courtroom testimony that the town council election scheme offered by the Town of Ahoskie N.C. is a reasonable remedy for the admitted deficiencies in their system of at-large elections and would be sufficient to meet the requirements of the Voting Rights Act. Also see Hines vs. Mayor and Town Council of Ahoskie (Fourth Circuit United States Court of Appeals #92-2593) 15 July 1993.

Degrandy vs. Wetherell, Civil Action No. 92-40015-WS (N.D.FL) and Florida State Conference of NAACP Branches vs. Chiles, Civil Action No. 92-40131-WS (N.D.FL) 1992. Consultant for Common Cause of Florida, amicus curiae in the case. Affidavit and courtroom testimony before the Special Master appointed by the Court to aid in the construction of legislative and Congressional districts for the State of Florida.

Appointed in 1992 as the expert to aid Special Master Frederick B. Lacey in drawing Congressional districts for the State of New York. Lacey was appointed by the Court considering the case of Puerto Rican Legal Defense and Education Fund, Inc. and Corcharo vs. Gantt, CV-92-1521(SJ) (E.D.N.Y.) and Waring vs. Gantt, CV-92-1776(SJ) (E.D.N.Y.). Testified by report and at trial.

Appointed in 1992 as the expert to aid Special Master Frederick B. Lacey in drawing state legislative districts for New York. Also retained to directly advise the Court on methodological questions. The cases were: The Fund for Accurate and Informed Representation, Inc. vs. Weprin, 92-CV-283 (N.D.N.Y.); Norman vs. Cuomo, 92-CV-720 (N.D.N.Y.); and Scaringe vs. Marino, 92-CV-0593.

Willis vs. Town of Trenton, North Carolina, 92-CIV-4-H (E.D.N.C.) 1993. Retained by defendants to outline for the Court the evidence plaintiffs must present to prove their claim that the town election procedures impede the election of blacks. Testified by report to the Court.

Retained by plaintiff National NAACP in the combined cases of National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, et al. vs. Schaefer, et al. (S-92-1409) and Marylanders for Fair Representation vs. Schaefer, et al. (S-92-510) in the Federal District Court for Maryland, 1993. Report, deposition, and courtroom testimony that the voting for General Assembly in Maryland is racially polarized, the minority community is politically cohesive, and the districts drawn by the State of Maryland provide less of an opportunity for minority citizens to participate in the political process than the districts drawn by plaintiffs.

Cane, et al. vs. Worcester County, Maryland, et al., Y-92-3226 (United States District Court, Maryland District 874 F. Supp 687) 1993. Retained by plaintiffs. Testified by report, deposition, and in court that the elections in Worcester County are racially polarized and that minority candidates of choice cannot win in the at-large elections for County Commission even if the minority community is strongly cohesive in their voting patterns. Also see Fourth Circuit United States Court of Appeals (35F.3d 921) 1994.

In 1992, consultant to the Cleveland County (N.C.) Board of Commissioners to formulate a plan to move from at-large to a mixed at-large district system in order to increase minority participation. Newly elected commissioners decided not to submit the new plan to the U.S. Justice Department for preclearance. This resulted in legal action: Campbell and National Association for the Advancement of Colored People vs. Cleveland County Board of Commissioners et al., 4:94-CV-11 (W.D.N.C., Shelby Division) in 1994. Testified by affidavit, but not as expert retained by any party to the legal action.

In 1992, Co-Chair of the Blue Ribbon County Governance committee, appointed by the Mecklenburg County (N.C.) Commission to study possible changes in election procedures for the county commission. Proposed a new expanded Commission and new set of districts. Co-chair of the District Proposal Election Committee, which campaigned for the new proposal, which was adopted by the voters in November 1992. In 1993 the North Carolina General Assembly revised those districts and mandated that the revised districts be used for school board elections. In Daly et al. vs. Hunt et al. 3:93CV371-MU (W.D.N.C. Charlotte Division) during 1994 the state districts were challenged on one-person-one vote grounds. Testified, in a joint affidavit with Gerry F. Cohen of the N.C. General Assembly staff, about both sets of districts.

United States of America vs. Anson County Board of Education et al. 3:93CV210-P (W.D.N.C.) 1994. Retained by the United States Department of Justice. Testified by declaration that elections in Anson County are racially polarized, the African-American community is politically cohesive, and any at-large seats on the school board would dilute the vote of minority citizens because whites vote as a bloc to prevent minority candidates from winning election.

Charles T. Sutherland vs. Everett H. Hyde et al. 3:94CV00451 (M.D.N.C.) 1995. Retained by plaintiff to testify by affidavit about the effects of the ballot order of names in primaries on the results of elections. Ballot order does affect the outcome of some primary elections in North Carolina. This case became Charles T. Sutherland, Jr. vs James Hunt, et al. 1:97-CV-1123 (M.D.N.C.).

Thurman Gause et al. vs. Brunswick County, North Carolina et al. CA-93-80-7-D (E.D.N.C.). Retained by defendants (Brunswick County) in 1994 to testify about polarized voting and the dispersal of minority citizens within the county. While I did not testify, I was deposed by plaintiff's attorneys. Also see Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals (No. 95-3028) 13 August 1996.

Consultant on election systems and redistricting for Albemarle, N.C. City School District (1988); Hickory, N.C. City School District (1991); City of Hickory (1991); Winston-Salem/Forsyth, N.C. School District (1991); Moore County, N.C. Commission (1991); Mecklenburg County, N.C. Commission (1991-2); Reidsville, N.C. City Council (1992); Rowan-Salisbury N.C. Board of Education (1992); plaintiffs bringing legal action against Mt. Olive, North Carolina (1993); plaintiffs bringing legal action against Laurenburg N.C. (1993); and Albemarle N.C. County Commission (1993).

City of Charlottetown et al. and The Government of Prince Edward Island. (1996) Court File GSC-14198 before the Supreme Court of Prince Edward Island, Canada. In the matter of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and in the matter of Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 17(2) and the Schedule of the Election Boundaries Act, (S.P.E.I. 1994, Cap. 13, Bill No. 100). As a result of MacKinnon vs. Government of Prince Edward Island (see above), the Provincial legislature was forced to redistrict itself. The City of Charlottetown argued that the Province did not fully comply with that decision, and they brought suit to change the districts. Retained by City of Charlottetown, testified by report and at trial that the districts were a rural gerrymander.

Wayne Cook, et al. vs. Marshall County, Mississippi, et al. and United States of America Defendant Intervenor. (1996) CA 3:05 CV 155-D-A (N.D.MS.). Retained by the United States Department of Justice to prepare testimony on polarized voting, minority cohesion, the effects of low socio-economic status on political participation, and traditional districting practices. In this case the Justice Department defended the districts used to elect county supervisors against a challenge by white plaintiffs. Testified by declaration.

Cleveland County Association for Government by the People, et al. vs. Cleveland County Board of Commissioners, et al. (1997) CA 96-1447-SSS (U.S. District Court for D.C.). Retained by plaintiffs to testify about possible districting arrangements. Testified by affidavit that it is not possible to draw a majority minority district in a five district plan for Cleveland County, N.C. that would be considered “geographically compact” as defined by the Supreme Court in Shaw vs. Hunt given the size and dispersion of the African-American population in that jurisdiction.

The United States of America vs. New Roads Louisiana (1997) CA 96-7315-B-M2 (M.D.LA). Retained by the United States Department of Justice to prepare testimony on polarized voting, minority cohesion, and the effects of low socio-economic status on the political participation of minority citizens in New Roads Louisiana. Testified by declaration.

Consultant in 1999 to the United States Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division, Voting Section on various aspects of Cromartie et al. vs. James B. Hunt, et al. 99-1864 (E.D.N.C.) and Smallwood et al. vs. Cromartie et al. 99-1865 (E.D.N.C.). The United States elected not to intervene in these cases.

Dean Butch Wilson et al. vs. John W. Jones Jr. et al. (1999) CA 96-1052-BH-M. in the United States District Court, Southern District of Alabama, Northern Division. Retained by the United States Department of Justice to prepare a four district plan for Dallas County (Selma), Alabama. Testified by declaration, at trial, and at a meeting of Commissioners about the principles used to draw the plan.

Randy Royal, et al. vs. The State of North Carolina and the North Carolina Board of Elections 99 CV 13020 (2000), in the General Court of Justice, Superior Court Division, County of Wake, State of North Carolina. Retained by Plaintiffs to examine the effects of campaign spending on General Assembly elections. Testified in writing.

The United States of America vs. Blaine County Montana (2000) CV 99-122-GF-DWM (MT), in the United States District Court for the State of Montana. Retained by the United States Department of Justice to prepare written testimony on polarized voting, minority cohesion, and the effects of low socio-economic status on the political participation of minority (American Indian) citizens in Blaine County Montana. Also drew a three single-member district plan for election of commissioners to show that Indians are numerous enough and geographically concentrated enough to form a majority in one of the districts. Testified by declaration, deposition and at trial.

The United States of America vs. Charleston County Council (2001) CA 2-01-0155-11 (SC), in the United States District Court for the State of South Carolina. Retained by the United States Department of Justice to prepare testimony on polarized voting, minority cohesion, the effects of low socio-economic status on the political participation of minority (African-American) citizens in Charleston, South Carolina and drew single-member districts to show minority numerosity and geographic concentration. Testified by declaration, deposition, and at trial during July 2002.

During the 2001 cycle of reapportionment I was consultant for the minority caucus of the Connecticut State Senate. I also drew Charlotte City Council Districts for the Alliance for a Better Charlotte and presented those districts to the City Council Redistricting Committee. My districts for the Charlotte/Mecklenburg Board of Education and Mecklenburg County Commissioners, drawn in my capacity as consultant to these bodies, were adopted.

Retained to advise the Minority Caucus of the Illinois House of Representatives and the Majority Caucus of the Illinois Senate. This resulted in several reports or declarations, including written and oral testimony before the Illinois State Redistricting Commission on 20 September 2001. The Commission enacted districts were challenged in Campuzano, et al. vs. Illinois State Board of Elections et al. in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, Western Division, Civil Action No. 01-C-50376. I was expert witness for plaintiffs in that case, and presented the districts for the Illinois General Assembly that I drew with Dr. Richard Engstrom in a declaration and at trial.

Retained by the Speaker of the South Carolina House of Representatives and the Majority Leader of the South Carolina Senate to advise them on redistricting. Since there was a deadlock between the General Assembly and the Governor of that state, the case went directly to Federal Court. The cases are Colleton County Council et al. vs. Glenn F. McConnell, et al. (Civil Action No. 3:01-3581-10); Leatherman et al. vs Glenn

F. McConnell, et al. (Civil Action No. 3:01-3609-10); and Marcharia, et al. vs. James H. Hodges et al. (Civil Action No. 3:01-3892-10) all in the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina Columbia Division. In the legal action I was retained by plaintiffs and testified by declaration, deposition, and at trial.

I was retained at various times during the year to advise the North Carolina Republican Party on developing redistricting issues, and wrote to the General Assembly Redistricting Committee and the United States Department of Justice about certain aspects of Congressional redistricting in North Carolina. The Congressional redistricting was challenged in The United States District Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina, Eastern Division in the case of Foreman, et al. vs. Bartlett et al. (Civil Action No. 4:01-CV-166-B0(4)). I was retained by plaintiffs in that case, and testified by declaration.

The Louisiana House of Representatives, et al. vs. John Ashcroft, Attorney General of the United States (Civil Action No. 1:02CV00062) in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia. In 2002 I was retained by the Department of Justice to examine whether the proposed districting plan for the Louisiana House of Representatives reduced the ability of minority voters to elect candidates of their choice. Prepared written and deposition testimony including proposed districts for Orleans and Baton Rouge parishes.

Working Families Party, et al. vs. New York City Board of Elections, et al. (Civil Action No. 03-3701) in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York. Retained by the Brennan Center at New York University, representing plaintiffs. Testified that votes in New York City, especially those of minority citizens, are lost because the New York City Board of Elections disabled or failed to reactivate the sensor latch on the 7,000 lever voting machines used in the city. Testified by report.

State of North Carolina vs. John Ashcroft, et al. (Civil Action No. 1:03 CV 02477 [RBW MG RCL]) in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia. In 2004 I was retained as consultant and then as potential expert witness for the Department of Justice to examine whether the proposed plans for the North Carolina General Assembly reduced the ability of minority voters to elect candidates of their choice. Prepared a report for the Department.

United States of America vs. Osceola County, Florida (Civil Action No. 6:05-cv-01053-GAP-DAB) in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida. Retained as an expert witness by the Department of Justice to examine whether the at-large voting for County Commissioners violated §2 of the Voting Rights act by denying Hispanic citizens an equal opportunity to elect representatives of their choice and participate equally in the political process. Testified by declaration, deposition, and at trial.

United States of America vs. Ike Brown, et al. (Civil Action No. 4:05-CV-33) in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi. I was retained as an expert witness by the Department of Justice to examine whether various election practices, contrary to State and Federal law, in Noxubee County, Mississippi violate §2 of the Voting Rights Act by denying white citizens an equal opportunity to elect representatives of their choice and participate equally in the political process. Testified by declaration and at trial.

Anne Marie Calabria v. North Carolina Board of Elections, 2006. Retained by Judge Calabria to determine whether the campaign expenditures by the “527” group FAIRJUDGES.NET changed the outcome of the 2006 election between Judge Calabria and Judge Hudson for Associate Justice of the North Carolina Supreme Court.

Amici Curiae in Support of Neither Party, Gary Bartlett, et al. v. Dwight Strickland, et al. in the Supreme Court of the United States. (556 U.S.1 [2009]) 17 June 2008. (with Nathaniel Persily, Bernard Grofman, Bruce Cain, and Lisa Handley).

In Re 2011 Redistricting Cases in the Superior Court for the State of Alaska, Fourth Judicial District at Fairbanks (Civil Case No: 4FA-11-2209CI [console-dated]). Retained by plaintiffs to testify about redistricting plans for the Alaska House of Representatives and Senate in terms of satisfaction of § 5 of the Voting Rights Act and the Alaska Constitution. 2011-12. Testified by report, deposition, and at trial.

The State of Texas v. The United States of America in The United States District Court for the District of Columbia (Civil Action No: 1:11-cv-01303-RMC). Retained by the U.S. Department of Justice to testify about whether the Congressional and Texas House of Representatives plans submitted to the court for pre-clearance under § 5 of the Voting Rights Act were intentionally drawn to discriminate against minority voters. 2011-12. Testified by declaration, deposition, and at trial.

Egolf et al. v. Duran et al. (Civil Action No: D-101-CV-2011-02942 [Consolidated cases]). State of New Mexico, County of Santa Fe, First Judicial District Court. Retained by Egolf plaintiffs to compare the various redistricting plans for the Congress and State House and Senate in terms of traditional districting principles and impact on Latino voting rights. Testified at all three trials. 2011-12.

North Carolina State Conference of Branches of the NAACP, et al. v. State of North Carolina et al. State of North Carolina, County of Wake, in the General Court of Justice, Superior Court Division (Civil Action No: 11-CV-01640). Retained by the Southern Coalition for Social Justice to determine how the proposed redistricting plans for North Carolina Congressional Districts, and State House and Senate used split VTDs (precincts) and whether such splits indicate any racial bias. Testified by affidavit and deposition. 2011-12.

Nueces County, Texas v. The United States of America, In the United States District Court for the District of Columbia (Civil Action No 1:11-CV-01748). Retained by the U.S. Department of Justice to testify about whether the county commission district plan submitted to the court for pre-clearance under § 5 of the Voting Rights Act had the effect and/or intent to discriminate against Hispanic voters. Prepared a report for the Department. The case was settled with a compromise plan after my analysis.

State of South Carolina v. United States of America, in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia (Civil Action No 12-00203). Retained by the U.S. Department of Justice to testify about whether South Carolina had the intent to discriminate against minority voters or to retrogress in the adoption of a photo identification requirement for voting. Testified by declaration, deposition, and at trial.

Zoraida Rios-Andino, Ney Rivera Garcia, Jasmine Guadalupe, Rosario Martinez v. Orange County, in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida (Civil Action No 6:12-cv-1188-ORL-22-KRS). Retained by Latino Justice PRLDEF to determine whether Latinos are numerous enough and geographically concentrated enough to form a majority in one of the six single member districts for Orange County Commission.

Amici Curiae in Support of Respondents, Shelby County, Alabama v. Eric H. Holder, Jr. Attorney General of the United States, et al. in the Supreme Court of the United States. (No. 12-96, February 2013). (with Richard L. Engstrom and David T. Cannon).

Retained by the North Forest Independent School District (Texas) to determine whether the closure of the district and its assimilation into the Houston Independent School District was retrogressive under § 5 of the Voting Rights Act. Declaration on the effect and intent or purpose of the closure order submitted to the U.S. Attorney General, May 2013. I submitted a slightly revised declaration for North Forest Independent School District, et al. v. Texas Educational Agency et al. in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division, Case No. 4:13-cv-01786.

Alabama Legislative Black Caucus, et al. v. The State of Alabama, et al. Case No. 2:12-CV-691 and Demetrius Newton, et al. v. The State of Alabama, et al. Case No. 2:12-CV-1081, combined cases in The United States District Court for the Middle District of Alabama, Northern Division. Retained by plaintiffs to determine whether the redistricting for the state legislature had the effect of diminishing the ability of minority voters to participate in the political process and elect representatives of their choice, and whether such an effect was intentional, May 2013.

Shannon Perez, et al. v. Rick Perry, et al. Case No. 5:11-cv-360, in The United States District Court for the Western District of Texas. Retained by the Department of Justice to summarize the history of voting rights litigation and Section 5 enforcement in Texas and to summarize my testimony in Texas v. United States, focusing on evidence that discrimination against minority voters in Texas is intentional, February 2014.

Consultant to the North Slope Borough (Alaska) Election District Review Committee. The Committee formulated a proposal to expand the number of districts and members of the Borough Assembly and School Board from four districts and seven members to six districts and eleven members. Presented the proposal to the Assembly. August/September 2014.

Sandra Little Covington, et al. v. The State of North Carolina et al. Case No. 1:15-cv-00399 in the United States District Court for the Middle District of North Carolina. Retained by the Southern Coalition for Racial Justice to testify about how the 2011 redistricting plans for the North Carolina General Assembly split precincts and what that reveals about the way in which the plans were drawn and their purpose. Testified in court, April 2016. My written testimony and deposition in the case of North Carolina State Conference of Branches of the NAACP, et al. v. State of North Carolina et al. (cited above) was the basis of this testimony.
